

A SCOUTING PARTY

The Scout Association, one of the largest groups of trained volunteers in the country, has won official recognition for the quality and excellence of its Group Scout Leader/Commissioner management and development programme. The Association was the only voluntary organisation in the list of 100 National Training Awards for 1991 . . .

THE Award winners were announced by H.R.H. The Prince of Wales at a ceremony hosted by Valerie 'Blue Peter Badge' Singleton in November 1991.

ABP's Training Manager Martin Swale who attended the ceremony is the County Commissioner for Norfolk. He was also the Chairman of a working group that devised and produced the Group Scout Leader/Commissioner training programme which won the award. With him at the ceremony was Garth Morrison, the Chief Scout. They received the Award on behalf of the Scout Association. ■

The Chief Scout, Garth Morrison, Valerie Singleton and Martin Swale with the National Training Award