

Mr. H. G. E. Birdseye and Miss H. M. Wagg

The marriage was solemnised at Terrington on Saturday week, by the Rev. J. E. Mostyn-Jones (vicar) of Mr. Harold George Ernest Birdseye, son of Mrs. Birdseye and the late Mr. A. Birdseye, of 6, Front Row, Highgate, Lynn, to Miss Hazel Maud Wagg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wagg, of Gonville-terrace, Terrington. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of saxe blue satin, with a pale blue bridal veil and wreath. Her flowers were pink and white carnations. Little Alan Lemmon (nephew of the bridegroom) was page boy, dressed in blue velvet trousers and a white satin blouse; his gold tiepin was the gift of the bridegroom. The bride was also attended by Doreen Croot, wearing a dainty dress of white satin with a pale blue sash and a headdress of blue, and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations; and the Misses Elsie Chestney and Evelyn Pearce, who wore pretty dresses of shell pink taffeta with net overdresses and headdresses to correspond, and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums and carnations. The three bridesmaids wore gold necklaces given by the bridegroom. The "best man" was Mr. Alfred Howard. A reception was held at the home of the bride. Among the many presents received was a tea service from the Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Crawford (Lynn) to the bride, a Pyrex dish from the Vicarage staff, and an electric standard lamp from the bridegroom's workmates. Their home will be at Highgate, Lynn.
