

Darral and I were overwhelmed by the welcome we received at The Willow Tree for the book signing on 28 September. We enjoyed the banter with those whose livelihoods have depended and still depend upon the port and with friends and former neighbours. We left King's Lynn in 1987 and it seemed as though the past 25 years have just disappeared. We hope everyone who bought a copy of the book will enjoy the read and thank them for their support. Great to see everyone.
